

INVITATION

TO

CLOTHING BUYERS!

YES, you are ALL invited to come and see what we can offer you. We don't expect to sell everybody their Clothing, but we are always glad of an opportunity to show our Goods, and feel confident that we can interest "Lookers," and when once we get a buyer interested we have accomplished a great deal toward making a sale.

The Styles this season are very attractive, and we have an excellent line from which to select. We can please you, whether you want a cheap every-day Suit or the finest Dress Suit.

OUR LEADER

Is a Warp and Filling Wool Suit at $4.75. We have never before been able to offer such value.

OUR LINE OF $7.50 SUITS

Is exceedingly strong in Slims, Stouts and regulars. They must be seen to be appreciated, and will speak more eloquently for themselves than we can for them.

FINE TAILOR-MADE GOODS!

We have them from the leading manufacturers—Goods of character. They are word-pictures themselves, and when once seen you are bound to be impressed by the fit, finish and general appearance.

PANTS AT ALL PRICES,

But we call special attention to our $2.50 Goods.

BOYS' AND CHILDREN'S SUITS,

At from 75c. to $10.00. Bring the Boys and Children with you; we can fit them, and please you in quality, style and price.

Furnishing Goods.

When a customer wants anything in this line he wants a full assortment from which to select. We have it. Neckwear, Collars, Cuffs, Handkerchiefs, Shirts, Socks, Gloves, and many other little articles which every gentleman needs every day.

HATS.

This is a line of Goods which we have always pushed, and one in which we are pleased with the success attained; but as is perfectly natural we are anxious to gain further goals, and have selected our Stock with this end in view. Men's Hats at from 25c. to $3.00. Boys' Hats at from 10c. to $1.50. A good assortment of Caps for men, boys and children.

SHOES.

All styles and prices. Boys' Shoes, Men's Shoes, Brogans and Fine Shoes. We have the Shoes, and want to sell them, and we think if we can get you to look at them that the Goods themselves will help us very much to make the sales. This is one article which must give satisfaction, or a dealer cannot expect to build up a trade, and when we find a Shoe, or line of Shoes, is not giving the satisfaction it should, we at once discard it from our Stock. In this way we hope to merit the confidence of our customers, and unless we do this we can't hope to succeed.

Now, we have tried to tell you about our Clothing Store, and will simply call your attention to our Dry Goods Establishment, which is full of Goods for the Ladies. We have—

TWO LARGE STORE-ROOMS,

And two large and well-selected Stocks of Goods, which we are anxious to lay before the trading public. We want your trade, and will do all we can to please you.

We do not want to make any imprudent or reckless statements, but candidly think we are in a better position than ever before to please the trade, and we are impressed more and more of this fact every day by the expressions of those who favor us with an investigation.

Remember, you all are invited to come to see us, whether you trade or not. Come to see us, and if we can please you we will thank you for your patronage.

Yours very truly,

C. F. JONES & CO.

Strict Good Middling..... 7 1/2

Bad odds are quite fashionable now.

The soda water business has about collapsed.

Christmas this year will fall on a Wednesday.

Court is in session at Abbeville this week.

We have a big lot of old newspapers for sale cheap.

Nearly all the summer swallows have returned home.

Anderson is paying New York prices for cotton.

The approaching term of Court promises to be a busy one.

A lot of Georgia cotton was brought to Anderson last week.

This weather is invigorating and gives new life to man.

Very few cotton seeds are being offered for sale. Price too low.

Col. J. N. Brown has returned home from a visit to New York.

It does us good to hear our people bragging about their big crops.

There are weddings and rumors of weddings. Let the good work go on.

Anderson County is going to be well represented at the Atlanta Exposition.

The farmers could not have more desirable weather for harvesting their crops.

The authorities have been asked to close the dispensary on tomorrow (Friday) day.

Mrs. C. P. Pressnell, of Hartwell, Ga., is in the city visiting friends and relatives.

The circus tents will be stretched in Major Whitner's pasture, on West Market street.

The summer girl is no more, but the autumn girl is doing business at the old stand.

The streets are crowded every day now, and everybody seems to be cheerful and happy.

It is expected that tomorrow people will come to Anderson to-morrow to see the circus.

Eleanor, infant daughter of Mr. J. W. Shaw, died last Sunday morning of cholera infantum.

The very air needs washing. The dust is everywhere. The leaves and grass are coated with it.

Miss Fannie Humpston, of White Pine, Tenn., is visiting Miss Lillian Murray, on Greenville street.

Mrs. Elizabeth Todd, who has been visiting her son, Mr. A. N. Todd, at Lenox, N. C., has returned home.

Up to last night Anderson's cotton receipts for this season were 17,260 bales. Same time last year 5,134 bales.

If a man's head were broken every time his promises were broken he would be in a hospital most of the year.

The weather this Fall reminds one very forcibly of the weather that followed the Charleston earthquake in 1885.

Now is the time to sow rice for winter grazing. This crop, if planted near the house, will pay in poultry raising.

The long drought has caused unusually low water in the rivers and creeks and is making trouble for some of the mills.

The County Treasurer opened the tax books yesterday. Pay as soon as you have the money and avoid the rush later on.

The accounts of the late farm of Moss & Brown are in the hands of F. M. Murphy, Esq., for collection. See advertisement.

In some sections of the County there is an epidemic of murrain among the cattle, and is very fatal to milk cows especially.

Our advertising columns tell you where you can get the best goods for the least money. Read them carefully every week.

Rev. G. M. Rogers will preach at Cross Roads Church next Sunday night. The service will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

Our Mr. Langston is in Atlanta this week seeing the Exposition with the members of the South Carolina Press Association.

Mr. T. J. Britt, of the Sandover section of Abbeville County, was in the city Monday and gave the INTELLIGENCER an unprecedented call.

Our good old friend, Mr. W. A. Bigby, of the Home Path section, was in the city last Saturday marketing cotton and gave us a pleasant call.

The drummers say they see more cotton on the streets and more people going to Anderson than in any town or city of its size they visit.

Read the new advertisement of the Sullivan Hardware Co. They call special attention to their big stock of guns, rifles and ammunition.

The close season for partridges comes to an end on November 1st. After that date the sportsman can let their own way until the 1st of April.

We are very grateful to those of our subscribers who have called in and settled their subscription to the INTELLIGENCER. Let the good work continue.

Anderson County lands are now a good investment. Rock bottom was reached several months ago, and from now on the tendency must inevitably be upward.

The man who comes to Anderson to-morrow, gets drunk and attempts to break the peace, will find it right expensive by the time he gets through Mayor Wiley's Court.

So far this season F. W. May, of Hopewell Township, is ahead on the potato question. He has sent the INTELLIGENCER one that will fill a peck measure. Who can beat it?

The Spartanburg Herald of the 9th says: "Mr. J. A. Sullivan, of the college, left for his home in Anderson last night. Mr. Sullivan was quite sick. He will return as soon as his health will permit."

Married, on Sunday, October 13, 1894, at 8 o'clock p. m., at the residence of Mr. H. J. McKim, near Wesley, by R. P. Martin, notary public, Mr. J. Claude Dickson and Miss C. R. Kilgus, both of this city.

Said the Anderson lady to her neighbor the other day: "Do you find it economical to do your own cooking?" "Oh, yes," said the neighbor, "my husband doesn't eat half as much as when he had a cook."

Mr. G. M. Tolly, Chief of the Anderson Fire Department, attended the Fire Chief's Convention in Augusta last week. Mr. J. W. Dodd, Assistant Chief, left Thursday to join the chiefs in Atlanta, where they went from Augusta.

R. B. Findley & Co. have opened a meat market at the corner of Third and Main streets. They keep on hand all kinds of fresh meat, and will guarantee it to be the best the market affords. Read their advertisement, and be sure to give them a try.

Mrs. Thos. Ayer, of Macon, Ga., who has been visiting relatives in Anderson, left yesterday for home. She was accompanied by her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. Vandor, of this city. They will go to Atlanta and spend a few days at the Exposition.

Jimma Kay, youngest child of Mr. Abner Kay, died at his home in Broadway Township last Wednesday night, after a brief illness with diphtheria. The remains were interred at Neal's Creek Church on Thursday. Rev. M. McGee conducting the funeral services.

Abbeville Press and Democrat: "Mr. T. F. Hill, of Anderson, spent Monday and yesterday in the city, the guest of Dr. F. Harrison. Mr. Hill is District Deputy Grand Master of the First Masonic District, and visited Clinton Lodge A. F. M. Monday night officially."

Misses Flora Chapman, Edna Driver, Lucia Brown, Beulah Brown, Edna Earle, Maybelle Major, Lillie Grant, Essie Brazzale, Dora Burdette, Essie Bailey, Mollie Brazzale, Maggie Pearson and Ellen Acker left Monday for Rock Hill to enter the Industrial College. This gives Anderson County a pretty good representation.

Mr. J. M. Sullivan, one of Anderson's delegates to the Constitutional Convention, was in the city last week where his family are visiting, and was attacked with breakbone fever. He has been quite sick, but is now convalescing, and will be able to return to Columbia this week.

Miss Kittie Burdette, of Milledgeville, is visiting her cousins, Misses Watson, in the city. She is a daughter of Capt. Wm. Burdette, eldest son of Mr. Thomas Burdette, who lived in this County many years ago. It is quite a pleasure to welcome her in our midst. She is an accomplished pianist.

The Yates Shoe Co. have a new advertisement in another column, to which we invite your attention. Their store in the Masonic Temple is filled with every sort of footwear for the fall and winter season and their prices will please you. Remember, they can fit old or young, male or female.

Anderson has a new business firm, composed of Messrs. G. M. Cole, of Cadwell, N. C., and R. Coffey, of this city, under the name of Cole & Coffey. They will carry a stock of general merchandise, which they are now opening in the Red Block, on North Main street. Our readers will hear from them next week.

We ask your attention to G. F. Bigby's new advertisement, for it will benefit you to read it. Mr. Bigby is one of Anderson's most clever merchants, and he handles almost everything in the grocery and confectionery lines, tobacco, cigars, fruit, &c. His business is gradually increasing, and he has been forced to enlarge his stock in every department. Give him a call.

The C. A. Reed Music House has the largest assortment of musical instruments in the country, and if you need anything in this line it will pay you to go and see the stock and their prices before buying elsewhere. This house also sells baggies and sewing machines, which are sold at bottom prices. Read their new advertisement.

Our young friend, Mr. E. S. Hamilton, of the Corner, leaves this week for Potomac Station, Ark., where he has been elected Hamilton, a bright, worthy young man, and the trustees of his school are fortunate in securing his services. We join him in wishing him success in his school, and his many friends in wishing him a pleasant sojourn in his new home.

The man that is in the hardest luck this year is the one who bought fertilizer, agreeing to pay for it in cotton. Four hundred pounds of cotton at five cents comes to $20—the price of a ton of guano—but four hundred pounds of cotton at eight cents comes to $32—just $12 more than the price of the guano. We do not know how much guano was sold for cotton in this county.

Married, at the residence of the bride's father in this city, on Tuesday morning, October 15, 1895, at 8 o'clock, by Rev. O. L. Martin, Mr. Thos. Burdette, eldest son of Mr. Thos. Burdette, Esq. The wedding was a quiet affair, and the bride and groom were accompanied by the family and a few invited friends. The INTELLIGENCER extends its congratulations to the young couple, and wishes them a happy and prosperous journey through life.

Our young friend, W. Bealy Gossett, who has recently been clerking at Peizer, is spending a few days in Anderson and is warmly welcomed by his many old friends. Mr. Gossett has accepted the position of traveling salesman in South Carolina for that well known reliable firm, Frank & Adler, wholesale shoe dealers, of Baltimore, and will begin work the 1st of November. Mr. Gossett is a most excellent young man, makes a friend of every acquaintance, and we predict big success for him as a drummer.

Rev. O. L. Martin, pastor of the First Baptist Church, tendered his resignation at the conclusion of the morning service last Sunday morning, and it was a great surprise to everybody. A meeting of the congregation was held at once and it was unanimously agreed not to accept it. A committee was appointed to confer with Mr. Martin and ask him to withdraw his resignation. This committee will report next Sunday. Mr. Martin is an eloquent and forcible preacher, and we hope he may be induced to remain in Anderson.

After an illness of several weeks with typhoid fever, Mr. Charles S. Stewart died at his home in Savannah Township last Wednesday evening, aged about 30 years. Mr. Stewart was a son of the late George Stewart, and a worthy young man, who has most highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends and relatives. He leaves a widow and five children to mourn his death, and in their bereavement they have the sympathy of all their friends. On Thursday the remains were laid to rest in the Cross Roads Churchyard, Rev. W. T. Duncan conducting the funeral services.

Bulletin No. 21, new series, published by the Clemson Agricultural Station, is out. It is a pamphlet of nineteen pages, and contains the names of the Board of Trustees of the College, Board of Fertilizer Control, station staff and assistants. It is by F. S. Shiver, and gives the determination of the oxides of iron and aluminum in presence of phosphoric acid, lime and magnesia. The bulletin are sent free to all citizens of this State requesting them. Address communications to S. C. Experiment Station, Clemson College, S. C.

Read that shoe advertisement of Brown, Osborne & Co. in this issue, and call and see their mammoth stock of shoes. They sell nothing but reliable shoes, such as those made by J. A. Banister Company, of Newark, N. J.; Hayes Partridge Shoe Co., Philadelphia, Penn.; Marcy Bros. & Co., Hartford, Conn.; and home-made shoes made by the Anderson Shoe and Leather Co., Anderson, S. C., every pair of which they guarantee to give satisfaction or your money refunded. See them before you buy your shoes.

George Busby and James Burdette, two young white men, visited the city together last Friday and imbibed too freely of the dispensary drink. While on their way home they became involved in a quarrel about five miles west of the city, which resulted in Burdette being severely cut in several places, on the head, face and side, by a pocket knife in the hands of Busby. The persons came up and stopped the row, but the unfortunate man came near bleeding to death before Dr. Pepper, who has been seen for some time, arrived and dressed the wound. Busby ran off and has not been heard of or seen since. Burdette's wounds are not considered serious.

Grady, the youngest child of Mr. Thos. B. Earle, died at his home in this city on Monday, 14th inst., after a brief illness with diphtheria, aged five years and five months. For several days preceding his death the little fellow was doing exceedingly well, and it was believed he would soon be well, but on Monday morning a few hours later he died. He was buried in a few hours death claimed him as its victim. The remains were carried to the church and interred yesterday morning beside those of his mother. Grady was a bright, winsome child, and was a great favorite with all who knew him. His father, who is a well known and respected citizen, has the sympathy of a wide circle of friends in their sore bereavement.

The Two Republics, the leading daily paper of the City of Columbia, of the 9th inst., says: "Miss Bertie Cunningham had a narrow escape from death yesterday. She was suffering from a pain in the head, and a physician had prescribed morphine, but by mistake prescribed a double dose. His immediate efforts were apparent and alarming, and Dr. Fletcher was at once sent for. He labored hard and succeeded in warding off the ill effects, and she was, in the afternoon, out of all danger. However, the doctor said that if he had been called two hours later, all his efforts to save her life would have proved unavailing." Miss Bertie's many friends in Anderson will regret to hear of her misfortune, but will rejoice to know that she came through all right.

I have a Phone in the Clerk's office in the Court House. Step in and tell me how much Jellico or Hard Coal you want. A. L. WALTON.

Will R. Hubbard, Jeweler, next to Francis Bank & Merchants' Bank is offering special bargains in Watches. Be sure and see him before buying as he will make it to your advantage. He has 500 patterns to select from. If so, Sullivan Hardware Co. can furnish you with what you want.

WANTED—1,000 dozen eggs at 13 cents. S. M. FOWLER.

Black Hawk Corn Shellers, the best on earth at prices that everybody should have one, at Sullivan Hardware Co.

FOR SALE—170 acres of Land, well improved. Will sell cheap. E. H. VICKERY, Hartwell, Ga.

Bliss Smith, who escaped jail on the 16th of June, 1895, was recaptured yesterday in Georgia by J. J. Williamson and returned to jail, Sheriff Gaines paying a reward of $5.00 for his arrest and return to jail. Smith is held under two indictments, one for house breaking and larceny, and the other for grand larceny.

The marriage of one of Anderson's fairest daughters, Miss Evelyn Prevost to Mr. Frank Bellinger, of Jackson, Miss., was celebrated at the Presbyterian Church in this city this morning at nine o'clock. The Church was very tastefully decorated and everything passed off exceedingly well. Miss Virginia Evans presided with her accustomed grace at the organ, and accompanied by Mr. von Hasseln on the violin, rendered the wedding march as the bridegroom proceeded up the aisle to the following order: First came the ushers, Messrs. Postelle, Carter, Max Crayton, Tom Clark and Charles Prevost, followed by Master Clifton Ligon with Little Miss Lucile Sloan. Then came T. J. Bell with Miss Claudie Prevost, followed by the groom with Miss Evelyn Prevost. Next came the bride on the arm of her brother, Mr. Charles Prevost, of Nashville. The bride and groom joined each other in front of the altar, and were in a few minutes pronounced husband and wife by the officiating minister, the Rev. J. N. H. Summerell. The young couple left on the 9:30 train for their future home in Jackson, Miss.

Iola Items.

The health of our people is very good at this writing, with the exception of Miss Edith Richardson, who has been very sick with cold, and is glad to say she is slowly improving.

Miss Lee O. Thompson recently spent a week with her grandmother, Mrs. Brown, of the Waco section.

Mr. W. S. Hutchinson has returned to Baltimore, where he has been going to school. He was accompanied by Mr. Eber Burdette, who is also going to enter the Baltimore Medical College.

Rev. W. F. Holland has returned to the Theological Seminary at Louisville.

Mr. Editor, what has become of Squire Fernald? We have not seen him since the pen of this distinguished writer in some time. Wake up, Squire, and give us the news from the old home.

Cotton is opening very fast, and our farmers are doing all they can to get it picked out before cold weather sets in. It will be about a half crop of cotton and pass made, but look out for hog and hominy.

Saturday and Sunday were our usual meeting days at Lebanon, and, as is generally the custom, some of our friends, Rev. W. B. Hawkins, gave us some solid truths for meditation.

Mrs. Lee and J. D. Welborn are doing a good business ginning cotton. If you want a good sample of cotton take it to these gentlemen and they will do you right.

Mrs. Eva Burdette visited the family of Mr. Burdette, Mr. Robt. Brazzale, last Sunday.

Look out, girls! Mr. Hamp. may have a quick change of heart, and say "Will-they?" at any time.

A few of our people are talking of going to the Atlanta Exposition, and we will be well represented at said Circus.

Mr. Editor, we heartily endorse the action of the Constitutional Convention in regard to divorce. We think it should meet with the approval of every honest citizen of South Carolina. "What God hath joined together let not man put asunder."

Two of our most charming young ladies, Misses Robt. Wakefield and Miss D. Duckworth, have gone to the Greenville Female College.

One of the people who pass along the Pickens road give evidence as they pass that they have got a little too much of the "chemically pure," but readers do not understand us to mean that they are all church members.

Our Seventh Day Adventist has about quit working on Sunday.

If courting is any sign we will have several marriages to chronicle in the near future.

Well, Mr. Editor, we are all waiting patiently for the new constitution to be framed. It is hoped that the delegates will frame a constitution that will be a credit to the sons of South Carolina.

With best wishes for the INTELLIGENCER, FLEMING.

Denver Items.

As I have seen nothing from this place in some time I will try and give a few dots to inform our friends that our little city has not been dead and sleeping, and has awakened to new life and vigor since the return of the gins. Several young ladies from the busy hum of Mr. S. L. Rakew's gin, business is pretty lively.

Since my last writing we have had an addition to our society in the persons of young Dr. Bolt and wife. We have long felt the need of a Doctor in our midst, and we are glad to have one so well qualified to afford two and it is more convenient to have one near.

Miss Walter Rakew has been confined to his room for several days with rheumatism. We trust to see him out enjoying his usual good health ere long.

Also Mrs. J. S. McCallan is on the sick list again. She has never fully recovered from the severe illness of some months ago, but we hope the skillful treatment of Dr. Duckworth will prove efficacious in restoring her to health.

Miss Rakew, one of our most popular young ladies, left us a short time ago to attend the Female College in Greenville. We shall miss her greatly. The young ladies of our neighborhood are so scarce we can hardly afford to spare one, especially during the winter months, when everything is so dull at best.

Miss Mattie Rakew is away for a month's visit to the Exposition in Atlanta. She returned home with Miss Gentry (her cousin), who has been visiting relatives here during the summer.

"Old Joe" attended a candy pulling up in the Lebanon community last Saturday night, a week ago and came out with a session among the girls? I am told. I am expecting a full recital in the "Pine Grove Items" this week. Come, Joe, give us a full description of the occasion.

She has never saw so many pretty girls in his life—it quite took his breath. There were a house full, yard full, and all out of doors full. He was so confused and overwhelmed he cannot tell which one he fell in love with, and is going again to find out. There were some other young men that went along who became very much "amazed," but will tell all about it when he is able to express himself intelligibly. M. J.

A Hunter Kills Himself.

UNION, S. C., October 16.—A very sad accident occurred in Union last Monday which resulted in the death of a seventeen-year-old son of Mr. Jas. Gallman, the keeper of the poor house. It was that young Gallman was out bird hunting and laid down on the ground, putting his rifle down beside him. He was charged and the load of shot entered one of his legs above the knee and fractured his thigh. He lingered two or three days in great agony and died without having sufficiently rallied to allow an operation to be performed. The sympathy of the community was extended to the bereaved parents. This was the second time the young man had accidentally shot himself.

Attention, Sons of Confederate Veterans!

In accordance with the resolution of the former meeting a meeting of all those who signed the list of members of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, and of those who have been recommended by the Association, is called for Monday, October 21, 1895, at 10 o'clock, in the Court House, at Anderson, S. C. J. C. WATKINS, Chairman.

BROWN, OSBORNE & CO.

IT WILL PAY YOU

TO SEE THE BEAUTIFUL LINE OF

DRESS GOODS

WE have just opened. Words can give no adequate idea of their beauty—only an examination can show their beauty in color, weave, fabric and surprising excellency in price.

It Will Pay You

To see that lovely line of SILKS we are now offering. Silks and Waists are just the correct thing this season. We have a line of Silk for Waists that are marvels of beauty, high art and low prices. It surpasses all that such values are offered at so low a price.

It Will Pay You

To visit our MILLINERY DEPARTMENT. Here you will find Style, Art and Beauty up to the highest point, and Prices down to the lowest point. We know no competitor. We occupy the top niche, and have the stock, skill and prices to hold our position against all comers. If you buy before you see us you are the loser.

It Will Pay You

To examine our line of SHOES. We can certainly save you money in this Department, having bought our stock before the advance in leather. We can fit any foot, long or short, broad or narrow, thick or flat, and the pocket-book at the same time.

It Will Pay You

To inspect our line of CARPET SAMPLES, and make your selections while we have so large a lot. We have never had such excellent qualities at so low a price.

IT WILL PAY YOU

To drop in and see us when out shopping. It matters not what you want, we will make your visit both interesting and profitable to you.

U. E. SEYBT.

IT gives us pleasure once again to present ourselves before you, and say that our Mr. Lesser has returned from the Northern market, having purchased a "House full of Goods," consisting in part of Dress Goods—wool and cotton; Flannels, Ginghams, Calico, Bleaching, Sea Island Drill, Checks, Jeans, Cassimere, Water Proof, Cloaks, Capes, in fact everything pertaining to a first-class Dry Goods Store.

We are showing this season a mammoth line of Shoes. Having purchased before the tremendous rise, we are ready to offer you Shoes, and good Shoes, too, at same old prices. We know this is not business, but rather than to have any harsh words we are ready to yield.

In passing through our large and spacious Store you will see great piles of Clothing for Men and Boys, and high stacks of Men's Hats. At another glance you will behold deep shelves of Millinery, Feathers, and all kind of things for the Ladies' heads.

Now, friends, all we are working for is a living. To this end we promise and obligate ourselves to sell you good, seasonable Goods at a very small profit.

You are respectfully invited to call, if purchaser or not.

Remember our place of business.
